My Ascension documentary screening on May 4th in Ambler is a suicide prevention event to give education and hope for local parents and youth

Ambler, PA - [April 29, 2022] – Magellan Health, Inc. today announced that Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania, Inc. (Magellan), in collaboration with Bucks County, Montgomery County, Temple University Ambler Campus, Brooke Glen Behavioral Hospital, The Horsham Clinic, the Suicide Prevention Task Force in Bucks County, and the Suicide Prevention Task Force in Montgomery County, will host a special screening of the My Ascension documentary (myascension.us) to give education and hope for local parents and youth during the first week of Mental Health Awareness Month. The event is scheduled for May 4, 2022, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Learning Center on the Temple University Ambler Campus (580 Meetinghouse Road, Ambler, PA 19002), and the event is free and open to the general public. Magellan currently administers behavioral health benefits throughout Pennsylvania with HealthChoices contracts in Bucks, Cambria, Delaware, Lehigh, Montgomery, and Northampton counties.

The documentary film is about a suicide attempt that left 16-year-old varsity cheerleader, Emma Benoit, paralyzed, and propelled her on a mission to use her painful experience to help others find hope and stay alive. My Ascension is a feature length documentary that chronicles Emma's inspiring journey and quest to walk again, and also highlights the stories of two remarkable young people who tragically did not survive their attempts. The film gives first-hand accounts from family members, friends, school officials, and suicide prevention experts about the devastating effects of suicide and what can be done to prevent it.

Special note for parents: Due to the film's subject matter, the event organizers recommend that children under age 10 do not attend unless their parents have seen the film previously and are ok with having their child view the film.

The My Ascension documentary event screening will include:

- Meet/Greet with Emma Benoit and Greg Dicharry from 5:30-6:00 p.m.
- 90-minute feature length documentary from 6:00-7:30 p.m.
- 60-minute panel discussion from 7:30-8:30 p.m. to include Emma Benoit, filmmaker Greg Dicharry, local mental health advocates, and students
- Resource tables hosted by community stakeholders and behavioral health/substance use providers will be available from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

"We are so grateful to Emma and Greg for traveling from Louisiana to share their message of hope with our community, and we believe this event will be a unique and impactful opportunity for parents and youth to better understand how suicide can be prevented," said Emily Ferris, manager for recovery and resiliency services at Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania. "This event on May 4th is an important educational opportunity at the start of Mental Health Awareness Month, and on behalf of the event committee, we want to extend a community-wide invitation to everyone in Bucks County and Montgomery County to attend this event. It's an unfortunate reality that the issue of suicide can affect people of all ethnicities, ages, genders, geographic regions, and socioeconomic levels.”

One of the key goals for this event is to share important educational resources with parents, youth, and the regional community. Exhibitors will be available inside the Learning Center starting at 5:30 p.m. on May 4th to share helpful information, and a resource flyer with additional resources will also be available at the event. The current exhibitors scheduled to attend are: Abbey’s Bakery; Access Services; Brooke Glen Behavioral Health; Bucks County Chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI); Bucks County Suicide Prevention Taskforce; Central Behavioral Health; Child and Family Focus; Creative Health Services; FamilyWorx; Horsham Clinic; K&S Services; Lenape Valley Foundation; Lower Merion Counseling; Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania; MCC Warwick Family Services; Mental Health Partnerships; Merakey; Montgomery County Chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI); Montgomery County Suicide Prevention Taskforce; PennDel Mental Health; and St. Luke’s Penn Foundation.
