Are you pregnant or postpartum and need help accessing resources?

Getting help is easy with Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania, Inc. Whether you are looking for physical health services, behavioral health services or community resources to support you throughout your pregnancy, Magellan is here to help!

How we can help?

- Speak with a nurse from Magellan's Integrated Health team to discuss your physical and behavioral health needs.
- We can explain the behavioral health services available to you, at no cost, through your Medicaid benefits.
- Make connections to community resources available to help support you and your family.
- Make connections to maternity support programs offered by the physical health managed care organizations.
