

8th Annual Recovery in the Valley in Cambria County is September 28

Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania will host the 8th annual Recovery in the Valley in Johnstown on September 28, in collaboration with Behavioral Health of Cambria County, the Cambria County Behavioral Health Services Program and the Cambria County Drug Coalition. This event will take place in Johnstown's Central Park from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., and it is open to the public.

The Recovery in the Valley includes:

- Featured speakers to include keynote speaker, Erik VanZant from REFORM Alliance.
- Resource tables hosted by behavioral health and substance use providers.
- Public information about different pathways of recovery.
- Various church groups offering support to those struggling with substance use disorders.
- Family entertainment including a bounce house.
- Photo booth.
- Pizza and popcorn machine at no cost to attendees.

“Each year we look forward to this family-friendly event to promote the societal benefits of prevention, treatment, and recovery.” said Tracy Shultz, director of operations for Magellan Behavioral Health in Cambria County. “We invite the general public to come celebrate those in recovery, to applaud the contributions of treatment and service providers, and to promote the message that recovery in all its forms is possible.”
