Important: Check your child's Medicaid coverage

Many children in Pennsylvania have recently lost their Medicaid (HealthChoices) insurance without knowing it. This means some kids may not be getting the health care or mental health services they need—including help at school.

Please check your child's coverage. You can renew or apply for Medicaid online at www.compass.state.pa.us.

If your child has a disability, they may still qualify no matter what your family earns. This is called the PH-95 rule.

To learn more, visit the PA Department of Human Services website: www.pa.gov/agencies/dhs/resources/medicaid.html.
