Opioid epidemic resources are available

Has the opioid epidemic hurt you? Do you know someone that has been hurt by opioids? The opioid crisis is hurting a lot of people. It is a big crisis in our state. Magellan knows this. We want to help.

Our website is www.MagellanofPA.com. We have a page for Opioid Resources and Support. It is listed under the Community tab. Please go to this page. You will see local solutions. We have county options. We also have state options. You can get help from this information. Your friends and family can benefit too.

We believe in a holistic approach to treatment. Opioid use disorder needs a team approach. This will decrease risk factors. Peers and family members are welcome to join the team. The treatment must be:

- Member-focused
- Personal
- Recovery-oriented
- Private

Our website has many opioid-related resources. We hope these help to fight this crisis. The resources currently available are:

- Drug and alcohol assessment locations
- Physical health plan support
- Commonwealth of Pennsylvania support
- County support
- Drug take-back locations
- Opioid Use Disorder Center of Excellence locations
- Naloxone FAQ
- Tobacco support
- Alternatives for child opioid prescriptions
- Nar-Anon family groups
- Al-Anon family groups

Magellan wants to keep you informed on how to quickly access treatment.

Visit our new health & wellness library

Looking for information about health issues? Or details about the medicines that you use? Look no further than your Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania health and wellness library.

Here you will find facts to help you make better health decisions. You can also learn about the side effects of your medicines, risks or generic options.

This new library offers interactive tools, too. You can take a test or put in data to find out how to make good health choices.

Want to try it out? Visit www.MagellanofPA.com and look under the health library tab at the top of the homepage.
